SITUATION

The village of Uckington is situated about three miles from Cheltenham, a lovely area with a thriving community, located on the north-west fringe of the town. Whilst this area is notably semi-rural, surrounded by some super walking countryside, it is an easily accessible spot conveniently placed withing a mile to the popular shopping area of Kingsditch and Gallagher Retail Park nearby, comprising two large super markets, a chemist, various retail shops and a under construction, a brand new M&S home/food store. Cheltenham is a short distance on and within an easy drive or bus route in, providing a more comprehensive range of amenities and facilities. A Regency spa town, Cheltenham offers a cosmopolitan lifestyle to its audience playing host to several highly acclaimed festivals including food, literary and jazz. In addition, this area offers an excellent choice of private, state and Grammar schools, in both Cheltenham and Gloucester of which the properties are in close proximity.
